

Social media and use of Twitter; now known as X

The purpose of our use is limited to build connections and to share and increase awareness of our website and youtube and video presentations with a view to increasing traffic to each of these and for no other purpose.

Our firm rules mean X is not to be used for anything beyond sharing activity of the website and is not being used for any investment advice whatsoever.

The use means;

1. We are not giving any investment advice, recommendation nor placing any value on any investment or type of investment whatsoever.
The tweets are not being used to comment on such contents either.
2. We will not create any abusive, opinionated, defamatory or derogatory content nor comment on the same.
3. We must ensure that any quotes from third parties are accurate.
4. We shall strive to ensure the posts are limited to increasing awareness of our business.
